WALTER COLLECTION

The WALTER collection is a nod to the three pillars of the National Triangle; Parliament House, the Defense Headquarters and City Hill. The three pillars represent what according to Walter Burley Griffin are the three aspects of a strong democracy; the people, the government and a free market. Today, the triangle is the heart of Canberra, featuring the many national institutions, parks and dining experiences that we have come to love in the Nation's Capital. WALTER pays homage to Canberra's history whilst looking towards the future.
